

1-1-1957

Seniors

Ames Forestry Club

Follow this and additional works at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester>

Part of the Forest Sciences Commons

Recommended Citation

Ames Forestry Club (1957) "Seniors," Ames Forester: Vol. 44 , Article 5.

Available at: <https://lib.dr.iastate.edu/amesforester/vol44/iss1/5>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Iowa State University Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ames Forester by an authorized editor of Iowa State University Digital Repository. For more information, please contact digirep@iastate.edu.

SENIORS

RICHARD E. BOZARTH—Omaha, Nebraska—Summer camp, Oregon, 1955.

After graduation Dick is planning to attend Michigan State College, where he will be a special student in entomology and pathology. His main interests are in arboriculture, but since there is no curriculum in arboriculture at Iowa State, he is majoring in forest management. Dick has had six years experience as a tree surgeon. His main interests are hot rods and scouting.

PAUL L. DANIEL—Carroll, Iowa—Summer camp, Oregon, 1955.

Paul's main interest is in the line of hardwood utilization. After graduation he plans to work for some industry in hardwood utilization. Paul is a member of the Newman Club and has been a member of the Forestry Club for the past three years. Hobbies of his are hunting and cabinet making.

RODNEY E. DODGE—Ames, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming 1954.

Rod is majoring in utilization and plans to go into research and personnel management after graduation. He is Vice-Pres. of Forestry Club, Alumni Editor of the Ames Forester and Cadet Colonel of the R.O.T.C. regiment. His hobbies are fishing and hunting. Practical experience for U.S.F.S. in New Mexico.

JAMES W. EDGREN—Ames, Iowa—Summer camp 1950, Married.

Jim is interested in the management phase of forestry. Upon graduation Jim plans on doing graduate work in pathology. His hobbies include leathercraft, camping, hunting and fishing.

MAX E. FERREE—Ames, Iowa—Summer Camp, Texas and Arizona, 1950—Married.

Max's main interest is in wood utilization and he plans to go into industry after graduation. His practical forestry experience includes one summer with the Forest Service and two summers with Blandin Paper Company. Max has been a photographer for the Ames Forester. Other college activities include 630 Club, Bomb staff and Delta Sigma Phi social fraternity. His main hobbies are hunting, fishing, bowling and photography.

JIM H. HAYGREEN—Centerville, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming 1954—Married.

Jim is majoring in forest utilization and plans on entering private industry upon graduation. He has worked two summers with the J. Neil Lumber Company, Libby, Montana. Hobbies are hunting and golf.

JOHN W. HAZARD—Youngstown, Ohio—Oregon, '55

John is majoring in forest management and plans to work for the Forest Service until called into the Army. During the summer months John has worked for the Erie Railroad and done surveying work in Ohio. He is a member of Forestry club, Society of Advanced Artillery Cadets, and Society of American Foresters.

RONALD KETCHUM—Belmond, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1953.

Ron has been quite active in Forestry Club. He was forestry open house display chairman for Veishea in 1955 and general open house chairman in 1956. His favorite hobby is hunting. Ron is majoring in forest management. He has had practical experience working as a blister rust checker in Oregon and on forest inventory in Washington. After he gets out of the army Ron wants to work either for the Forest Service or the Bureau of Land Management.

JOHN W. KONING—Davenport, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

John's major interest is in forest utilization. Upon graduation he will spend three years in the Air Force and then he plans to work for the Forest Service. He has been in numerous college activities. They include Alpha Zeta, President of Agricultural Council, student faculty safety committee, Veishea central and selection committees, Festival Chorus, and Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity. John has also been quite active in Forestry Club. He has been on the Holst tract and christmas tree committees and has been secretary. He has also been local ad salesman for the Ames Forester. John's favorite hobbies are hunting, canoeing and sailing.

ROBERT MILES—Marinette, Wisconsin—Summer camp, Idaho, 1948.

Bob's major interest is in the forest products end of forestry. After graduation he plans to go into this field in industry. He has had experience working for the International paper Co. in Alabama and the Badger Mills in Wisconsin. His activities include Veishea open house and Veishea consession stand. Hunting is Bob's favorite hobby.

HILTON MUNTZ—Farmington, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming 1954.

Hilton received his practical forestry experience as a scaler in the Eldorado Forest in California. He is majoring in forest management and economics. His activities include Business Manager for the Ames Forester, Holst Tract Committee and Ag. Council.

DON OMODT—Gowrie, Iowa—Summer Camp, Wyoming, 1954.

Don has a rather unique interest in forestry in that he is interested specifically in foreign woods. After graduation he plans to go into exotic wood importing. Don has had quite a variety of summer experience in forestry. He spent one summer as a prevention guard, one in a lumber yard, and has had one summer of B.R.C. work. His college activities include sales manager of the Ames Forester, chairman of set construction for SOV, SOV cast, ISC Singers, Festival chorus, freshman baseball, Forestry Club, and public relations representative for Veishea. Don likes music, hunting, books, fishing, and wood-shop.

FRED L. OMUNDSON—Elmhurst, Illinois—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

Fred plans to work in industry after graduation. He is most interested in marketing research. He has had some practical experience working as a research forestry aid in Colorado. Fred has been a salesman for the Ames Forester, treasurer and president of the Forestry Club, and chairman of the christmas tree sales and activity pass committees. His other activities are IFC social chairman, Society of American Foresters, co-chairman of '56 Paul Bunyan Days, and Sigma Nu social fraternity. Among his favorite hobbies are hunting and archery.

JOHN PERKINS—DeWitt, Ia.—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

John plans to work either for the Bureau of Land Management or the Forest Service after graduation. His major field is forest management. John is a member of the Forestry Club and the Society of American Foresters. Some of his favorite hobbies are fishing, hunting, hiking, and reading.

STERLING (DUFFY) PILLSBURY—Sioux City—Summer Camp, Wyoming, '54.

Duffy has selected wood utilization as his option in forestry. Upon graduation he plans to work in some type of wood using industry. Duffy has held Veishea positions, been on Ames Forester staff three years, and was circulation manager his senior year for the Interfraternity Council. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi social fraternity. Duff's hobbies include tennis and fishing.

ALLEN J. PREY—Greendale, Wisconsin—Summer Camp, Oregon, 1955.

Al is interested in the management phase of forestry and plans to go into forest management in the Lake States region. His activities include Newman Club, Society of American Foresters, Society of Advanced Artillery Cadets, Interfraternity Council and Alpha Chi Rho fraternity in which he has been president and steward. Al's hobbies are camping, tennis, and basketball.

DEAN RICHARDSON—Ames, Iowa—Summer camp, Wisconsin, 1951
Married.

Dean has had some practical experience with the State Conservation Nursery. After graduation he plans to work either for the Forest Service or in the wholesale or retail lumber business. His major interests lie in the field of forest products. Dean's college activities include the Iowa State Marching Band and intramurals. His favorite hobby is hunting.

DONALD L. SCHRAMM—Sac City, Iowa—Summer camp Wyoming 1954.

Don is majoring in utilization and is going into the wood using industries upon graduation. He is a member of Beta Sigma Psi fraternity and has been active in many college activities. Currently they are Editor of Ames Forester, member of Young Republicans, Gamma Delta, and the Student Faculty Curriculum committee. He worked with the Forest Service in Washington as Headquarters Fireman in Trout Lake.

MARY K. SCHWART—Ames, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

Mary is interested in the field of forest pathology. After graduation she plans to go into the teaching field. She has had some practical experience working for the ISC forest pathology laboratory. Among her college activities are the ISC Pops and Concert Bands, the ISC Concert Orchestra, Botany Club and Sigma Alpha Iota. Mary was camp reporter for the '55 Forester and is circulation manager this year. Her hobbies are music and organized camping.

ROBERT E. STEWART—Newton, Iowa—Summer camp, Oregon 1956
Married.

Bob is majoring in utilization and plans to work in a wood products industry after graduation. His forestry experience has been working in a retail lumber yard. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and his hobbies are team sports and color photography.

SELMER CLAIR UHR—Swea City, Iowa—Summer camp, Texas and Wisconsin, 1950.

Working in forest management in industry is Selmer's goal after graduation. He spent three months working on Walowa National Forest in Oregon. Selmer's favorite hobbies are traveling, fishing, and hunting.

WILLIAM R. WARNER—Woobine, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming 1954.

Bill plans on entering law school after graduation and a hitch in the army. He is majoring in utilization and his main hobby is flying. He is the Assoc. editor of the Ames Forester this year, member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Social fraternity and Alpha Zeta Agr. honorary. His practical experience has been one summers work for the U.S.F.S. in Oakridge, Oregon.

WAYNE YARGUS—Keosauqua, Iowa—Summer camp, Wyoming 1954—Married.

Wayne has had practical experience working for the Rocky Mountain Forest and Range Experiment Station, Grand Junction, Colorado. He is majoring in range management and contemplates working for the Bureau of Land Management after graduating. His hobby is hunting.

JOSEPH PAUL KASTELLIC—Ely, Minnesota—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

Joe is majoring in forest management, but hasn't decided what he wants to do after graduation yet. He has had experience around Ely working with blister rust, tree planting, portage, and campground crews and has also worked as a fire fighter in Alaska. His favorite hobbies are hunting, guns, and most sports.

GARY A. WELCH—Sibley, Ia.—Summer camp, Oregon, "56." Married.

Gary is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity and the Forestry club. While in the service he worked in Forest Protection. Gary is interested in all outdoor sports and expects to work in sales or production after graduation

RICHARD J. BONYATA—Grinnell, Ia.—Summer camp, Oregon, "55"

Dick is majoring in wood utilization and plans to follow this when he graduates. His hobbies are hunting and fishing. He is a member of the Forestry club and the Society of American Foresters.

ROBERT L. QUADE—Sioux City, Ia.—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

"Joe" plans after graduation to go to graduate school at either Iowa State, Colorado A&M, University of Idaho, or Utah State. He plans to do his graduate work in forestry and wildlife. Joe is a member of the Forestry Club. Some of his hobbies are hunting, fishing, woodworking, and classical music.

DEAN E. MEDIN—Albany, Ill.—Summer camp, Wyoming, 1954.

Dean is majoring in forest management. After graduation he plans to go to graduate school. Dean's favorite hobbies are fishing, hunting, electronics, and reading. He is a member of the Society of American Foresters.